

Small Group Worship – Psalm 111

*Provided by the faculty of the School of Church Music and Worship
Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary*

All: Hallelujah! I will praise the Lord with all my heart in the assembly of the upright and in the congregation. (Psalm 111:1)

Hymn: “Praise to the Lord, the Almighty” (stanzas 1–3, 5)

Scripture, Sharing, and Prayer (Psalm 111:2–5)

Reader 1: The Lord’s works are great, studied by all who delight in them.

Reader 2: All that he does is splendid and majestic; his righteousness endures forever.

Reader 3: He has caused his wondrous works to be remembered. The Lord is gracious and compassionate.

All: He has provided food for those who fear him; he remembers his covenant forever.

Questions for Discussion:

- How often do we pass by the Lord’s great works of creation?
- Do we study and notice and delight in his great works?
- In what ways can we remember and rehearse God’s goodness, grace, and compassion in our own lives?

Prayer

Hymn: “Come Thou Fount of Every Blessing”

Scripture and Group Prayer Time (Psalm 111 6–10)

He has shown his people the power of his works by giving them the inheritance of the nations. The works of his hands are truth and justice; all his instructions are trustworthy. They are established forever and ever, enacted in truth and in uprightness. He has sent redemption to his people. He has ordained his covenant forever. His name is holy and awe-inspiring. The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom; all who follow his instructions have good insight. His praise endures forever.

Group Prayer

Hymn: “Be Thou My Vision” (stanzas 1–2, 4–5)
