

O You Righteous, Come and Sing (Psalm 33)

1. O you right - eous, come and sing to God a fit - ting song. —
 2. O you right - eous, come and sing to God a fit - ting song. —
 3. O you right - eous, come and sing to God a fit - ting song. —
 4. O you right - eous, come and sing to God a fit - ting song. —

With glad - ness let us praise our King a - new with cho - ral tongues.
 Our voic - es laud in com - mon theme; we praise His loy - al love. — a tune of spar - rows and of men known by the ear of God. — an an - them for the war a - gainst our souls, which have been won. —

For He who with a word, or less, wills all things to com - ply, —
 Once cho - sen, ev - er kept, His saints are blessed for end - less time.
 His throne is loft - y, yet He still is mind - ful of the earth.
 From death the care and might of God a - vailed our vic - tor - y. — and good - ness t'ward cre - a - tion is His ha - bit and de - light.

 En - dur - ing is God's plan for us; in this our peace re - lies.
 This reign - ing Lord proves tend - er - ness by tend - ing hu - man hearts.
 We hope in the sal - va - tion that He gra - cious - ly de - creed.

O God, a - new we sing in hopes ful - filled, in wait - ing. O God, Your praise we bring with joy - ful hearts, an off - er - ing.

1, 2, 3.

O you right - eous, come and sing to God a fit - ting song.

4.